

THE LONDON CLUB

Club Culture & Dress Code

BUSINESS CASUAL ATTIRE

The London Club is a place for Members to relax, entertain, connect with other business professionals and similar types of people, and enjoy extraordinary events in a sophisticated environment. As a private Club the behavior and conduct of each Member reflects on the reputation of all Members. The following Member code has been adopted by the board to guide the Member in understanding their responsibilities in maintaining the positive reputation that the club has earned over many years.

DRESS CODE

Business-casual attire, as described below, is permitted throughout the Club:

- During select scheduled events, the Club may implement event-specific dress codes.
- Members and Guests are requested to leave outerwear (including coats, hats, scarves, gloves, and winter boots) in the cloakrooms.
- In the JAT, during pre-and-post London Knights home game dates, game jerseys, sweaters and team t-shirts are acceptable.
- Shoes must be always worn in all areas of the Clubhouse.
- Casual attire is permitted while picking up take-out from the Club.
- It is the responsibility of Members to inform their Guests of Club-appropriate attire and ensure that their guests comply with the Club's appropriate attire policy. A Member may ask for assistance from Staff in ensuring compliance of such Member's Guest with appropriate attire.
